Evodia Yekile is a South African leg-spin bowler currently playing for South Western Districts.

A right-arm leg-spinner, the 29-year-old is a vastly experienced individual who has numerous accolades to her name. She won the Provincial Women's Player of the Year award in 2014 and again in 2016.

She made the switch from Free State Women to SWD at the beginning of the 2025/26 season, bringing a wealth of experience to the side, with well over 100 career wickets in List A cricket alone.

A reliable leg-spinner who boasts excellent control, she is now seeking a stint in the EU ahead of the 2027 summer. A holder of a CSA Level 2 coaching qualification, Evodia would be a fantastic addition both on and off the field.
