Ben Uttley (26) is a talented wicket-keeper batter from Burnley, England.

Uttley currently plies his trade with Padiham Cricket Club in the North West Cricket League – Premier Division, having come through the ranks at Lancashire League powerhouse, Lowerhouse Cricket Club. With a strong junior pedigree and growing senior experience, Ben has become a reliable presence both with the gloves and the bat.

A passionate and enthusiastic cricketer, Ben has transitioned into the top-order for Padiham and has been reaping the rewards in 2025, passing 300 runs by the halfway mark of the season. His ability to anchor an innings while also rotating strike makes him a valuable asset at the top of the order.

Behind the stumps, Ben is equally effective. The dynamic gloveman has racked up over 80 dismissals across the past three seasons, underlining his consistency and sharpness in the field. Whether standing up to the stumps or managing pace off the back foot, he's a confident and vocal presence behind the wicket.

Now ready to embark on his first overseas cricket experience, Ben is seeking a Club for the 2025/26 season in the Southern Hemisphere, where he's eager to immerse himself in a new cricketing culture and continue to develop all aspects of his game.

A hardworking and team-first cricketer, Ben would be a great addition for any club seeking a top-order keeper-batter with a strong work ethic and consistent performances.
