Charlotte Aylmore, a passionate and determined spin bowler from Northamptonshire, England.

A product of the Northamptonshire CCC and Sunrisers EPP Pathway, she has been representing her county since the U15 level, consistently developing her skills and pushing towards higher honours.

At the club level, Aylmore sharpens her craft playing for Burton Latimer Cricket Club Women's 1st XI in the East Midlands Women's Cricket League, while also testing herself in men's senior cricket with Nassington Cricket Club. Eager to take her game to the next level, she now looks to challenge herself in the Southern Hemisphere to further her development and gain invaluable experience.

Beyond her playing ability, Aylmore is deeply involved in the game off the field. A passionate coach and umpire, she dedicates significant time to growing the sport and inspiring the next generation.

A determined and ambitious cricketer, Aylmore would be a fantastic signing for any club looking to strengthen their women's section with a player who brings both skill and passion. Charlotte has recently signed for a second term last Longford CC after a standout debut season down under where the took 43 wickets @ 5.56.
