Eamonn Crossley is an exciting young talent making a strong impression for Clowne Town Cricket Club's First XI in the Derbyshire League, where he plays a pivotal role with both bat and ball. With the ball, Eamonn offers excellent control, consistently holding an end while using his skillset to apply pressure and take key wickets with his off spin.

A stylish and adaptable batter, he combines the ability to anchor an innings with a modern 360-degree game that allows him to accelerate and take down bowlers when needed. His composure and versatility make him a reliable presence in any match situation.

Eamonn was the leading wicket-taker for Repton School's First XI last season and currently holds the same title again this year. A mainstay in the Repton side since the age of 15, he has continually delivered at a high level. He also brings a wealth of experience from his years representing Derbyshire County Cricket Club from U11 through to U18 level, further highlighting his pedigree and potential.

Eamonn hopes to utilise a winter overseas to develop his all round game and hopefully progress to higher honours. He is keen to get involved in all aspects of club life, socially, coaching and helping with groundwork. He represents an exciting all round option for any club this coming summer.
