Emma Royle is a talented left-arm seam bowler from Cheshire, England, who has consistently demonstrated her ability to perform across both Women's and Men's senior cricket.

A product of the Cheshire County Cricket Club Women's Pathway, Emma has become a key figure at Stockport Trinity Cricket Club, regularly featuring in both the Men's and Women's First XI sides.

To date, Emma has taken 69 wickets for the Men's First XI at an impressive average of 15.22 and 99 wickets for the Women's First XI at an outstanding average of 10.49. Her standout campaigns in 2021 and 2022 saw her claim over 50 wickets in each season, opening the bowling for the Men's First XI—highlighting her ability to lead the attack and thrive under pressure in senior cricket from a young age.

Unfortunately, Emma's 2024 season was disrupted by injury, which required surgery. However, after a successful rehabilitation, she is now back to full fitness and ready to make a strong impact in the 2025 season. Emma is eager to continue her development and is targeting a season in Australia as the ideal opportunity to gain experience in new conditions, improve her game, and showcase her skills to a wider audience.

Emma would be a fantastic addition to any club looking for a dedicated and skilful left-arm seamer who brings experience, hunger, and the proven ability to perform at a high level across both men's and women's competitions.
