Harvey Rogers-Collen is a dynamic young all-rounder from Birmingham, England, with the ability to impact the game across all three disciplines—bat, ball, and in the field.

A product of the Warwickshire County Cricket Club pathway, Harvey has developed into a well-rounded and influential cricketer. He now captains the First XI at Olton and West Warwickshire Cricket Club, competing in the Warwickshire County Cricket League, where he continues to demonstrate leadership and performance.

The 2024 season was a standout for Harvey, as he amassed nearly 700 runs and 28 wickets across all competitions—highlighting his value as a genuine all-rounder and match-winner.

Off the field, Harvey is an ECB Level 2 qualified coach and is currently studying for a degree in Physical Education. He is deeply passionate about player development and coaching, making him an excellent candidate for a Player/Coach role. His focus on mentoring young cricketers and contributing to the broader club culture sets him apart as a well-rounded professional.

Now looking to take his game to the next level, Harvey is seeking opportunities in Australia or New Zealand for the upcoming season to gain exposure to overseas conditions and further expand his cricketing horizons.

An excellent signing for any club in search of a talented, experienced, and leadership-minded cricketer who can contribute both on the field and in a development/coaching capacity.
