Puneet Datey is an accomplished pace-bowling all-rounder playing for 2022 Ranji Trophy winners, Madhya Pradesh.

Save for his solitary season with Chhattisgarh (2019/20), has been an integral member of Madhya Pradesh’s squad since his debut 2013/14 season.

During what has been an illustrious career, Datey has played over 100 domestic matches, bagged almost 200 wickets alongside 1,000 plus runs.

He has been successful across all formats but has particularly excelled in red-ball cricket (Ranji Trophy) with 111 wickets at 26.18 in addition to 811 runs at 18.43.

Surprisingly, despite his success in T20 cricket (29 wickets at 23.55) and inclusion in various IPL auctions, he hasn’t featured for any of the Franchises.

He has, though, enjoyed two stints in England plying his trade for Elsecar (2018 – South Yorkshire League), and Checkley (2023 – North Staffs and South Cheshire League).

In his maiden UK season (2018) he guided his side to a second-place finish in the Championship division (top tier) scoring 539 runs at 44.92 alongside 46 wickets at 12.61.

Last summer, unfortunately he sustained an injury in June which impacted his season. Prior to injury, Datey has scored 205 runs at 29.29 plus 24 wickets all with the incredible average of 8.83.

The all-rounder really is quite the player who is now eager to return for a third stint next summer.
