At club level, Gray developed his game with Lostock Cricket Club in the North West Cricket League, where he claimed 32 wickets at an average of 20.06 last season. In addition to his pace and wicket-taking ability, Reece can contribute valuable runs in the middle to lower order, his highlight footage certainly showcases some serious firepower with the bat.

Ahead of the 2026 season, Reece has joined Horwich RMI Cricket Club in the Greater Manchester Premier League, seeking to test himself in Premier League cricket and further accelerate his development. He is also expected to play a key role for Lancashire's Under-18 side while pushing for Second XI opportunities throughout the summer, before heading overseas during the winter.

Beyond playing, Reece is a qualified ECB Level Two Coach and is keen to contribute within his host club's coaching structure, offering assistance and mentorship wherever possible.

A genuine quick with strong county pedigree and clear ambition, Reece Gray would be an outstanding addition for any club seeking an emerging fast-bowling talent for the 2026/27 season.
