Ethan Rice is a talented young bowling all-rounder from Cambridge, England.

A left-arm medium-fast bowler who predominantly uses seam movement as his main weapon, Rice has already made a Northamptonshire 2nd XI debut. The exciting youngster has represented the County on numerous occasions after graduating through the age-group pathway.

Currently playing his Club Cricket for Eaton Socon in the Cambridgeshire and Huntingdonshire Premier League, Rice has progressed to be a regular opening bowler in the club's 1st XI and has impressed over recent seasons. Since joining the club back in 2020, the left-armer has taken 51 League wickets at an average of 23.22. Rice has career-best figures of 6/23 taken back in July 2021 against Foxton Cricket Club.

Also a reliable right-handed middle-order batter, the youngster has had limited opportunities in recent times but continues to work hard and has the technique required to score runs on a regular basis.

Rice is currently on his maiden overseas stint in 2023/24 having signed with Unley for their Adelaide Turf Cricket Association campaign, and has been one of the standout performers in the Comp, and is now keen to explore options for next season.
