Will Christophers is a highly impressive spin bowling all-rounder from Devon, England.

The Englishman is a front line leg spinner who bowls with great control and has the ability to turn the ball both ways. The Southerner is also a more than handy right handed middle-order batter.

The 24-year-old currently plays Minor Counties cricket for Devon County Cricket Club, and was the leading wicket-taker during their One-Day campaign back in 2023. The all-rounder has recently achieved success with Cardiff UCCE and Cardiff Met Uni. After winning the BUCS Championship, Christophers delivered outstanding performances in the final (5-23) and semi-final (4-24), making him Cardiff Met's leading wicket-taker.

In 2022, he was the league-leading wicket-taker in the Devon Premier Division claiming 40 wickets for Bovey Tracey Cricket Club. Will went on to sign for Taunton St Andrews in the West of England Premier League (WEPL) ahead of their 2023 campaign, once again showcasing his talent in a team consisting of English County stars Tom Banton and James Rew.

The talented all-rounder is keen to play the game professionally, and now sees 6 months playing/training in Australia essential to his future cricketing ambitions. No doubt a serious pick up for any club seeking a top overseas amateur ahead of the 2024/25 Summer.
