Abdul Faseeh is an exciting and elegant opening batter from Rawalpindi in Pakistan.

The young left-hander has enjoyed a fantastic start to his career, most noticeably being selected to represent Pakistan in the recent Under 19 World Cup in the West Indies (Jan/Feb 2022)

The disciplined batter came away from the tournament with an average of 48.33. His top score of 68 came against 4th placed Afghanistan in the group stages. Pakistan went on to finish 5th in the super eights with Abdul walking away with his head held high.

Prior to his World Cup journey, Abdul made his first-class debut for Northern vs Baluchistan in the Quaid-e-Azam Trophy (Nov 2021). He excelled hitting scores of 47 and 94 against an attack featuring CricX star, Pakistani A quick Taj Wali.

These are promising times for the youngster and with his domestic season coming to a close, Abdul is now seeking his maiden UK voyage to continue his development.
