Abdul Rehman, a Pakistani professional who has enjoyed a bright start to life in First Class Cricket. Progressing seamlessly through the Pakistan system at U16, U19 and Academy level, Abdul has now established himself in the professional game. A classy left-handed top-order batter, he has already made his mark in First Class cricket with an average of 35, including two centuries to his name.

In addition to his batting credentials, Rehman provides a valuable point of difference with his seam bowling, giving balance and flexibility to any side.

Now seeking his first season abroad, Abdul is eager to test himself in UK conditions and continue his development against different styles of cricket. With his proven pedigree, temperament, and all-round ability, he would no doubt be an excellent signing for any club seeking a top-order batter who can make a lasting impact both on and off the field in 2026.
