Abdullah Tarakhail is a promising all-rounder steadily making his mark in Afghanistan's cricket landscape.

A genuine seam-bowling all-rounder and powerful middle-order batter, Abdullah has already built an impressive resume at a young age. He first came to wider attention playing for Afghanistan's U19 side in a match against South Africa in March 2019, sharing the field with fellow CricX talents Shafiqullah Ghafari and Ijaz Ahmad.

Shortly thereafter, he made his first-class debut and has since featured in 39 professional matches across all formats. Tarakhail has been especially effective in red-ball cricket, compiling 563 runs at a solid average of 28.15, alongside 24 wickets, showcasing his dual threat with bat and ball.

As a genuine pace-bowling all-rounder—a coveted commodity in any side—Abdullah is now keen to take his game overseas. He represents an excellent opportunity for UK clubs in 2026 seeking a hardworking, talented all-rounder who can make an impact with both bat and ball.
