Abu Hider Rony is a high quality left arm seam bowling all rounder from Bangladesh, known for his consistency and impact across all formats of the game.

His strong performances at the domestic level have earned him international recognition, representing Bangladesh in both ODI and T20I cricket with a total of 15 appearances to date.

A genuine seam bowler with a proven ability to take wickets in all conditions, Abu has built an impressive statistical record. In first class cricket, he has taken 206 wickets at an average of 28.43, while in List A cricket he has claimed 220 wickets at 26.06. His effectiveness extends into the T20 format, where he has secured 123 wickets at an average of 27.00, underlining his adaptability and value across formats.

In addition to his bowling credentials, Abu is a capable and reliable all-rounder with the bat. He has recorded a first-class best score of 141* and maintains a batting average in the mid twenties. Across professional cricket, he has scored 12 half centuries and 2 centuries, demonstrating his ability to contribute meaningful runs and strengthen the middle order.

A cricketer of high calibre, Abu Hider Rony is now setting his sights on an opportunity as an overseas professional in the UK. With his proven track record and all round abilities, he would be a significant asset for any club seeking to strengthen their squad with a quality seam bowling all-rounder.
