Adam Doyle is an emerging top-order batter from Dublin, Ireland.

A right-handed batsman, Adam progressed through the youth ranks at Malahide Cricket Club and is now an established member of the club's First XI. He heads into his third full season at that level following a stop-start 2025 campaign. Adam made his First XI debut in 2020 at just 17 years old. While he initially found the step up challenging, he has significantly elevated his game over the past three seasons, developing under the guidance of former South African, Sri Lankan, and Ireland Head Coach Graham Ford.

Across the last three Leinster Premier League seasons, Adam has averaged above 28, demonstrating consistency at the top of the order and a clear commitment to continual improvement.

Beyond playing, Adam is an ECB Level Two qualified coach and works within the Leinster pathway system, coaching both male and female players. He is heavily involved in Malahide's youth cricket structure and also delivers one-to-one coaching sessions for developing players.

Keen to broaden his horizons, Adam is now seeking an overseas opportunity to continue his development. Adelaide, Australia, is his preferred destination due to having access to accommodation in Henley Beach, with Christchurch, New Zealand, as a second option.

A talented and passionate cricketer, Adam Doyle would be a valuable addition to any club looking for a driven top-order batter who will fully immerse himself both on and off the field in his new colours for the 2026/27 season.
