Adam Scher is a British Passport holding South African who has excelled, both at home and abroad, in recent years.

A talented batting all-rounder, Scher has been instrumental towards his club side's success since taking over the reins in recent years. Playing for Green Point Cricket Club, alongside the likes of Zak Elkin (Western Province), and Wesley Barresi (Netherlands), he took GPCC from the brink of relegation (2018/19), to skipper his side to the 1st Division A title (2019/20), and subsequent promotion to the WPCA Premier League.

His exploits for GPCC in 2019/20 were rewarded with not only promotion, but individual awards including 1st XI "Bowler", and "All-Rounder" of the season. Alongside the title and a bagful of wickets, Scher's highlights included a brilliant 109 off just 69 balls against Kraaifontein Cricket Club.

Abroad, Scher has been in sensational form in recent seasons for Odiham and Greywell (2019, 2021, 22). He joined the Hampshire Cricket League club following previous stints with Newquay (2016), and Old Hamptonians (2018 - 540 runs at 38.57 and 22 wickets at 19.14). During his time in Hampshire, he clocked up 6 centuries amongst 1,890 runs at 59.06 alongside 26 wickets at 17.84.

During the 2021 season, the former Western Province Under-19 all-rounder, was at his very best, both on and off the field. Not only did he guide his 1st XI to promotion, hitting 706 runs at 78.44, but his coaching and development work off the field helped all four of Odiham's sides to promotion. Now that is some season.

In 2022, he spent the first part of the season in Staffordshire for Aldridge (532 runs at 40.92 and 13 wickets at 25.62) before returning to his beloved Hampshire club for the remainder of the season (460 runs at 51.11 and 16 wickets at 18.69). Last summer (2023), Scher took on a Player/Coach role with Finchley in the strong Middlesex League. Whilst he didn't perform up to his own high standards (371 runs at 23.19 and 17 wickets at 23.88), he was instrumental with the clubs junior section to earn rave reviews.

Over the past two seasons in South Africa, Scher has been a stand-out performer for Green Point in Cape Town's top-flight Premier League. He has finished second to Zac Elkin as the League's leading run-getter and amongst the wickets to boot.
