Adil Amin is a Pakistani batting all-rounder who bats right-handed in the top order and bowls right-arm off-spin, and his domestic record in Pakistan reflects a long and genuinely all-round career. Across first-class cricket he has scored 4,835 runs at an average of 32.23, including six centuries and 27 half-centuries, with a highest score of 211 not out, and he has backed that up with the ball, taking 27 first-class wickets including a five-wicket haul.

In List A cricket he has been arguably even more consistent, averaging 44.37 with six centuries and 29 half-centuries from 3,994 runs, while also taking 43 wickets in the format. He has represented a wide range of sides over the course of his career, including Peshawar, Khyber Pakhtunkhwa, Peshawar Panthers, Water and Power Development Authority, Islamabad, Sui Southern Gas Corporation and Federally Administered Tribal Areas, before a move to Bahawalpur and, most recently, Oil and Gas Development Company Limited, for whom he played his latest first-class and List A cricket as recently as January 2026. He also featured in the Pakistan Super League for Peshawar Zalmi.

His ability has been recognised at representative level too. Playing for Pakistan A against the England Lions in the United Arab Emirates in 2018, Adil produced an outstanding unbeaten 120 from just 87 balls, a score that stands among the leading individual innings recorded in that series and remains one of the standout performances of his career.

Adil has also taken his game beyond Pakistan in white-ball cricket, turning out for Sebastianites Cricket and Athletic Club in Colombo, Sri Lanka, in Twenty20 cricket during 2022.

In the UK, Adil spent the 2026 season with Cannock Cricket Club, and it proved an outstanding campaign in both disciplines. With the bat he scored 1,210 runs in 24 innings at an average of 80.67, striking two centuries and nine half-centuries with a highest score of 132 not out. With the ball he was just as influential, sending down 138.1 overs to take 24 wickets at an average of 29.21, with best figures of 4 for 18. It was an all-round season that made him one of the standout performers in club cricket in 2026.

On the back of those performances, Cannock have moved quickly to secure his services for a second term, and Adil has re-signed with the club for the 2027 season.
