Adil Reshi is an accomplished Indian first-class cricketer seeking to showcase his talent in UK club cricket next summer.

A seasoned professional, Reshi played 32 Ranji Trophy matches for the renowned Jammu and Kashmir side between the 2011/12 and 2016/17 seasons. During this period, he amassed 1,627 runs at an average of 27.57, including a century and nine fifties.

Reshi's standout performances include a stellar debut season in which he scored 397 runs at an impressive average of 56.71. In the 2013/14 season, he topped Jammu and Kashmir's batting charts, amassing 670 runs at 39.41, highlighted by a remarkable unbeaten 160. However, after a few lean seasons, his Ranji Trophy career concluded in 2016/17.

After a seven-year hiatus from domestic cricket, Reshi made a comeback in the 2023/24 season, representing Badureliya Sports Club in Sri Lanka's Major League. While his stats for the season (143 runs at 17.87) didn't match his earlier heights, his return to professional cricket demonstrates his enduring passion and ability to compete at a high level.

A capable medium-pace bowler as well, Reshi is now looking for his first UK stint in 2025. With full-season availability and a wealth of experience, he is eager to contribute both on and off the field, making him an excellent prospect for any club seeking a proven performer.
