Currently plying his trade behind the stumps for Sialkot Region in the Quaid-e-Azam Trophy, Afzal is one of Pakistan's most promising young glovemen making his way through the domestic ranks.

His rise to professional cricket came through strong performances in Pakistan's youth system, where he represented Pakistan U16 and narrowly missed out on selection for the U19 World Cup squad. Undeterred, Afzal continued to develop his game and was rewarded with his First Class debut in 2024, where he made an immediate impact, claiming eight dismissals in the match. His consistency and excellence behind the stumps were recognised as he was awarded Top Wicket-Keeper in the 2024/25 Quaid-e-Azam Trophy.

While still early in his professional career, Afzal's skill, composure, and hunger to improve suggest that a big breakthrough performance is just around the corner.

Now looking to follow in the footsteps of many of his peers, Afzal is seeking his maiden UK season to further refine his craft and gain valuable overseas experience.

With accommodation available in Southampton, he represents an ideal option for any club seeking a talented, self-sufficient wicket-keeper batter for the 2026 season.
