Ahmed Khan is an exciting young all-rounder currently making a strong impression in Pakistan's top-tier domestic cricket. A genuine prospect with both bat and ball, he combines sharp pace with clean, powerful stroke play – a rare blend for a 21-year-old already performing at first-class level.

He represents Abbottabad in first-class cricket, having risen through the ranks with standout junior performances. A former Pakistan Under-19 international, Ahmed featured prominently in the 2022 ICC U19 World Cup in the West Indies, following impressive displays in the 2021 Asia Cup. He has six first-class matches to his name, with seven wickets at 29.85 and continues to show great promise in red-ball cricket.

Highly rated by his current first-class captain, Khalid Usman, Ahmed is seen as a player with the right attitude, skillset, and work ethic to succeed as a club professional. Dedicated and driven, he is firmly focused on reaching the highest level of the game.

In 2025, he made an immediate impact in the UK during his maiden stint with Oakamoor CC, scoring 609 runs at 35.82 – including a top score of 100* – and taking 35 wickets at 19.25, with best figures of 5-38. He is now seeking to build on that success with a return to the UK in 2026.

Ahmed is also able to provide his own accommodation in certain areas, including Bradford.
