Alex Nice, a 6-foot-4, 18-year-old seam-bowling all-rounder from Northumberland, England, is seeking an opportunity to play as an overseas player in Australia during the 2025/26 season. A proven leader and high-performing player, Alex has consistently excelled in County age-group and Premier League cricket.

As captain of the Northumberland Under-18 team, Alex led his side to the semi-finals of the ECB National Plate competition in 2024. His strong leadership and performances earned him the County Under-17 Player of the Year award and selection for the Northumberland Men's (Minor Counties) squad.
Alex has been a key contributor in senior club cricket.

During the 2024 season, he stepped up as the leading wicket-taker for Ashington Cricket Club's NEPL First XI when the team's professional was called up to international duty. Opening the bowling, he claimed 25 league wickets (best figures of 5-33) and a total of 27 wickets across league and cup matches, helping his team secure third place in the competitive North East Premier League. His contributions were recognised with the Ashington First XI Player of the Year award.

In addition to his bowling, Alex is a reliable middle-order batter. He scored 440 runs in 17 matches for the Northumberland Under-18 team, including four half-centuries, a highest score of 91 and an average of 27.5. His all-round skills make him an invaluable asset to any team.

Off the field, Alex is an ECB-qualified Support Coach and enjoys coaching and mentoring younger players. With eight years of county age-group cricket experience, a proven leadership record, and consistent success in both junior and senior competitions, Alex combines physical presence, technical skill, and tactical acumen. He is eager to bring his passion, strong work ethic, and expertise to an Australian club and further develop his game in a highly competitive cricketing environment.
