Alfie Hunter is an impressive batting all-rounder (off spin) from Sussex, England.

Hunter is a fluent right handed top order batsman who scores freely all around the wicket, and more than handy off spin bowler. The all-rounder who is currently part of the Sussex County Cricket Club under 18s squad for the summer, and recently made an impressive debut against Kent CCC with a blistering 55 of 35 balls and picked up 2 for 20 in a T20.

The Englishman is in his last year at the famous Eastbourne College in Sussex and has been part of the 1st side for a number of years, however this year the all-rounder has already impressed to date with nearly 500 runs at 47 and wickets at 13. At club level the youngster plays for Buxted Park Cricket Club in the Sussex Cricket League and despite his age and school commitments has already played 34 games for the 1st XI side. To date he has 989 runs at 34 with 3 hundreds, and 25 wickets at 27.

The hugely talented all-rounder is now keen to spend the winter in Melbourne as he is due to attend the International Cricket Programme this winter.
