Ali Asfand is quite simply an outstanding talent with the potential to have a career at the very top of the game.

A genuine all rounder, Ali bowls quality left arm spin and bats in the middle order. He has represented his country at Under 19 level, playing in the 2024 World Cup in South Africa where he showed glimpses of his talent. His selection followed soon after making his first class debut for Faisalabad, captained by Pakistan international Faheem Ashraf. His ability to learn quickly is one of his major skills and it won't be long before he is performing consistently at that level, this opinion is shared widely amongst high level sources in Pakistan who earmark him as a player with the potential to represent his country in the future. He has also represented Pakistan Shaheens to further enhance how highly thought of he is.

He is now keen to head to the UK for his maiden stint as an overseas professional to enhance his development both on and off the pitch. It is envisaged he will thrive off the responsibility that comes with representing a club as their professional and as a character he is extremely keen to add as much value to his club as possible. He has the perfect skill set and attitude to be a major success overseas and we all know how well genuine left arm spin bowling all rounders go in league cricket after all. He also benefits from having accommodation available in both Huddersfield (HD4) and London (RM8) but is open to offers across the whole of the country.

Ali represents a unique opportunity to sign potential future star of the game and is someone we strongly recommend.
