Ally Haase is a promising seam-bowling all-rounder from Lancashire, England.

Ally represents Blackpool Cricket Club in the Northern Premier Women's Cricket League and also competes in the men's game, turning out for St Annes Cricket Club's 3rd XI in the Palace Shield Competition. Recognising the limited fixture list in the women's league, Ally actively seeks out additional opportunities in the men's game to maximise her exposure and accelerate her improvement, an approach that has already paid significant dividends.

Now entering her third year of competitive cricket, Ally is eager to continue building her skills and gaining valuable match experience. With a passion for learning and a commitment to pushing her game to the next level, she is targeting a season overseas to challenge herself in new conditions and embrace a different club culture.

Ally will be travelling and playing alongside her partner, Chris Wilson, and while they are currently exploring their own accommodation options, they would require suitable arrangements for a couple.

No doubt, Ally would be a fantastic addition to any club seeking a determined, hardworking, and growth-focused cricketer—ready to contribute both on and off the field.
