Amartya Kaul is a talented right-handed batting all-rounder (seam) from London, England.

An accomplished opening batter with a solid technique, Kaul was born in Singapore and holds a British passport. Having grown up in London, he developed through the ranks at Wimbledon Cricket Club, representing both junior and senior sides, before moving to Brondesbury at the start of the 2021 summer.

Currently playing in the Middlesex Premier League, Kaul boasts a diverse cricketing résumé – including First-Class experience in Sri Lanka and representing Singapore in 11 T20 International matches across 2024 and 2025.

During recent English summers, he has been part of the South Asian Cricket Academy (SACA), further honing his skills in a high-performance environment. With ambitions to break into the professional game, Kaul offers both domestic and international experience, strong leadership qualities, and proven all-round ability.

Based in Richmond with his own accommodation, the British passport holder is open to Player/Coach roles for the UK 2026 season.
