Amelie Butterwick is a highly talented leg-spinning all-round cricketer from the North East, currently on a strong pathway towards professional cricket.

A cricket scholar at school, Amelie captains her Girls' First XI, demonstrating both leadership and performance from a young age. She is currently in her second year with the Durham County Cricket Club Women's Academy, having earned her place through standout performances at junior county level. Over the next 12-18 months, she is targeting progression towards a professional contract.

Known for her control, variation, and wicket-taking ability, Amelie uses her leg-spin as an attacking weapon while maintaining consistency through the middle overs, making her a key asset in all formats.

She also represents Northumberland County Cricket Club Women's First XI in the ECB Women's County Championship, competing in both One Day and T20 formats, where she is a primary spin option for the side.

At club level, Amelie plays for Norton Cricket Club in the North East Durham Women's Cricket League, where she is a key contributor for the Women's First XI.

Always striving for marginal gains, Amelie takes pride in her fielding, bringing confidence, composure, and strong awareness in the field. With safe hands and sharp decision-making, she is a dependable presence in key positions and regularly contributes in crucial moments.

A hardworking, driven, and highly motivated cricketer, Amelie is committed to continuous improvement and thrives under pressure. She brings energy, professionalism, and a positive mindset to every environment she is part of.

Now looking to broaden her experience, Amelie is targeting a winter in Melbourne, where she aims to continue her development alongside her Durham teammate Ava Broady.

For any club seeking multiple overseas players to strengthen their women's programme, Amelie Butterwick would be an outstanding addition, offering high-level spin, leadership, and long-term potential for the 2026/27 season.
