Amir Yamin, a former Pakistan international and vastly experienced domestic all-rounder, brings pedigree, consistency, and leadership in abundance.

Having represented his country on six occasions across both ODI and T20I formats between 2015 and 2017, Amir made his mark on the international stage, including four ODIs against Zimbabwe and New Zealand, where he boasts an impressive batting average of 95.00.

Across Pakistan's domestic scene, Amir has built a remarkable record with over 5,000 professional runs and 400 wickets across all formats, a true testament to his dedication, skill, and longevity in the game.

On UK soil, Amir has already enjoyed two successful seasons, most recently featuring for Cavaliers & Carrington Cricket Club in the Nottinghamshire Premier League (2025), where he excelled with 685 runs at 57.08 and 29 wickets at 22.86.

A proven performer with both bat and ball and qualified ECB Core Coach, Amir Yamin would be a marquee signing for any club seeking a genuine match-winner and high-quality professional for the season ahead.

Amir is now set to head to the GMCL after signing with Edgworth Cricket Club for their 2026 campaign.
