Amit Majumder is a dynamic, left-handed top-order batter and occasional leg-spinner with a wealth of experience at both youth international and domestic levels in Bangladesh.

A former schoolboy prodigy, Majumder rose through the national age-group ranks with distinction, representing Bangladesh U19 in 30 matches across formats, including 5 Youth Tests, 25 Youth ODIs, and two ICC U19 World Cups (2008 & 2010). He made headlines with brilliant centuries against Zimbabwe and Sri Lanka, solidifying his status as a future star in his teens.

Majumder made his first-class debut as a teenager in 2008 and has since become a seasoned campaigner in the Bangladeshi domestic circuit. Across nearly 150 matches in all formats, he has been a consistent performer, edging towards 4,000 career runs.

Post-COVID, he has shown strong form, particularly in longer formats and List A cricket, bringing stability and firepower to the top of the order. Known for his aggressive strokeplay, clean hitting, and calm temperament, he offers the ideal blend of flair and experience.

Now hungry for a new challenge, Majumder is eyeing his maiden UK stint in 2026, where he hopes to bring his run-scoring prowess and years of high-level experience to league cricket abroad.

Clubs looking for an experienced top-order batter with international youth pedigree, strong domestic credentials, and leadership potential will find Amit Majumder a top-tier overseas option.
