Amy Gordon (23) is hugely impressive batting all-rounder from Surrey, England.

Having been a part of Surrey County Cricket Club since the age of 9, Gordon progressed through the age groups, making her senior debut at just 14 in 2016. Her leadership qualities were recognized when she was named club captain in 2022. After a long and successful tenure, she has now made the move to Kent County Cricket Club ahead of the 2025 season, as she continues to push for national honours.

Gordon was a key member of the Surrey CCC squad that won Division One of the County Championship in 2018 and has consistently delivered standout performances since. Her talent earned her selection for England U19s on a tour of India, and she recently captained an England XI to victory at the European Cricket Championship, playing a pivotal role with both bat and ball.

At club level, Gordon represents Reigate Cricket Club in the Surrey Women's Cricket League, where she plays for both the women's and men's teams. She is also an integral part of the club's coaching structure, demonstrating her commitment to developing the next generation of cricketers.

Now set to take her game overseas, Gordon would be one of the standout signings of the off-season—a player eager to contribute both on and off the field and make a significant impact at her new club.
