Anand Bais is an exceptionally talented batter playing for the star-studded Madhya Pradesh side in all formats of Indian domestic cricket.

Playing alongside the likes of former Indian international, Naman Ojha, Bais has become a key performer for Madhya Pradesh, particularly in the List A format.

It's the Vijay Hazare Trophy where Bais has been a stand-out, averaging 38.47 over his 28 one-day matches to date.

An explosive batter from the middle-order, who also bowls handy off-spin, Bais has been involved with Madhya Pradesh for well over a decade.

He represented the State at age-group level, dominating the respective CK Nayudu and Vinoo Mankad Trophies, before breaking into the Central Zone side for the 2014 Deodhar Trophy.

Bais has been a consistent run-getter for the State in white-ball cricket in recent years and is now eager to showcase his talent in Ireland or Holland next summer.

A player with massive potential, who comes recommended by Ranji Trophy and UK league legend, Mahesh Rawat, Bais is quite the prospect for any club in 2022.
