Angel Mgwenya is a pace-bowling all-rounder with a proven track record at provincial level in South African cricket. She first came to prominence with the Mpumalanga Rhinos, producing some of the most eye-catching performances of her career. In 2022, she delivered a historic spell of 8 for 16 against Easterns, followed by a dominant 4 for 9 against Kei, underlining her ability to consistently trouble top-order batters.

Now part of the Fidelity Titans setup, Angel continues to refine her game while competing at a higher level. She made her T20 debut for the Titans in Cape Town against Eastern Province, bowling with control and composure to return figures of 3 for 22. Further strong performances followed, including an impressive 2 for 8 against the Lions, reinforcing her effectiveness in high-pressure situations.

While bowling remains his primary strength, Angel is also a capable contributor with the bat. Her all-round potential was on display during an inter-squad match, where she scored a fluent 44 not out from 23 balls, showcasing power, awareness, and the ability to finish an innings strongly.

Driven by discipline, work ethic, and a hunger for constant improvement, Angel is committed to becoming a complete cricketer. Her ambition is to leave a lasting impact on the game as a fearless, dependable team-first player, while earning the opportunity to compete at international level against the best in the world.
