Name	Anshuman Rath
DOB	05-11-1997
Nationality	Hong Konger
Player Status	Available
Playing Role	Batting All-Rounder (Spin)
Batting Style	LH Top Order Bat
Bowling Style	SLA Orthodox Spin
Entry Route
Coaching Qualifications	NZ Level 1

Anshuman Rath is a dynamic left-handed top-order batsman and occasional left-arm spinner with a unique international cricketing journey. Rising to prominence with Hong Kong, Rath showcased his talent and leadership by captaining the national side, becoming the third youngest ODI captain in history. He delivered consistently in ICC tournaments such as the Asia Cup and World Cup qualifiers, finishing as the highest run-scorer in the World Cricket League between 2015 and 2017.

Rath's international stats underline his class: in 18 ODIs, he scored 824 runs at an exceptional average of 51.50, complemented by 14 wickets at a remarkable 11.92 bowling average. In the shorter format, across 68 T20 matches, he accumulated 1,824 runs at 30.40, with useful contributions with the ball as well.

Since 2021, Rath has transitioned to Indian domestic cricket, representing Odisha in the Ranji Trophy, further honing his first-class game. His versatility and experience across cricketing cultures reflect adaptability and ambition to grow as a global talent.

In UK club cricket, Rath has been a standout for Stanmore since 2015, with a particularly stellar 2025 season—scoring 602 runs at an impressive 67 and taking 25 wickets at 17.16. Looking ahead, the former Hong Kong captain is eager to explore franchise opportunities abroad, including the emerging US cricket scene, aiming to expand his impact on the global stage.

Overseas Statistics

Team (Season)	Mts	Inns	NO	Runs	HS	Ave	Ovs	Runs	Wkts	BB	Avg
Stanmore (2025)	17	16	0	853	187	77.55	98.6	477	27	5/14	17.67