Anuj Jotin (30) is an Indian all-rounder known for his dependable batting and deceptive mystery spin. A consistent performer and a true team player, Jotin is a stylish right-handed batter & right-arm off-spin bowler who has built a reputation for contributing in both departments of the game.

He made his first-class debut in Sri Lanka in 2022, quickly making an impact with the bat. In first-class cricket, Anuj has maintained an impressive batting average of 63, including two centuries, with a highest score of 150. One of his most memorable performances came while chasing a marathon total of 421, where he played a remarkable innings of 151, showcasing his temperament and ability to perform under pressure.

Alongside his first-class success, Anuj has also delivered outstanding performances in the United Kingdom over the last three seasons. During this period, he accumulated more than 3,000 runs and claimed over 100 wickets, averaging around 1,000 runs and 35 wickets per season. His ability to consistently contribute with both bat and ball has made him a valuable asset to every team he represents.

In the most recent season, Anuj played a key role in his team's success with Donemana Cricket Club, helping them secure the Cup Championship, finish second in the league, and reach the T20 semi-finals.

A dedicated professional, Anuj Jotin continues to look forward to playing cricket in different countries, aiming to explore new opportunities, gain experience in diverse conditions, and further develop his all-round game.

Anuj left Donemana Cricket Club in Northern Ireland as one of the leading run getters and top wicket takers in the NCU premier league last season but he is now looking for opportunities in The Republic Of Ireland & Holland only.
