Archie Davies (18), a 6ft 6in spin bowling all-rounder from Liverpool, England.

A towering presence on the field, Davies is a product of the Lancashire County Cricket Club Pathway System, having worked his way through the County Age Groups. His progress was rewarded with a County Second XI debut this summer, highlighting his upward trajectory.

A point of difference due to his exceptional height, Davies uses his frame to generate steep bounce and turn, making life difficult for opposition batters. With the bat, he adds value in the middle to lower order, capable of contributing vital runs when needed.

A loyal, one-club man, Archie plies his trade with powerhouse side Formby Cricket Club in the Premier Division of the Liverpool and District Cricket Competition. Despite his young age, he has already amassed 128 First XI wickets at an average of 21.82 and is closing in on 100 First XI appearances across all formats, an impressive feat that underlines his talent and consistency.

Now focused on pushing for higher honours, Davies is seeking a season in Australia (Melbourne) for 2025/26 as a vital step in his cricketing development. He is eager to immerse himself in a new Club environment, contribute both on and off the field, and continue evolving his game in unfamiliar conditions.
