Archie Wainwright (18), a seam bowling all-rounder from Derbyshire, England.

A product of the Derbyshire County Cricket Club Elite Player Programme (EPP), Archie is a dynamic right-arm seamer known for his ability to swing the new ball both ways and contribute valuable lower-order runs with the bat.

At club level, Archie represents Clowne Town Cricket Club in the Derbyshire County Cricket League, featuring across both the First and Second XI squads. A genuine team player, Archie brings high energy, positivity, and strong morale to the group and prides himself on maintaining high standards while constantly seeking improvement.

As he prepares to complete his College studies, Archie is now looking to take his game overseas for the 2025/26 season, with a particular focus on gaining experience in Australian conditions. Keen to grow in both his bowling and batting, Archie is determined to push for higher honours in the years ahead.

A driven, self-motivated, and enthusiastic young cricketer, Archie would be a fantastic addition to any club looking to strengthen their seam-bowling stocks and invest in emerging talent.
