Arif Ahmed is an experienced slow left-arm spinner from Bangladesh with 81 professional appearances and 143 wickets across all formats.

A consistent and reliable wicket-taking bowler, Arif has an impressive first-class best of 6/76 and has built a strong reputation for his control while regularly making breakthroughs.

His accuracy, variation and experience make him a strong fit for competitive league cricket in the UK. Arif is also capable with the bat. He has a first-class half-century to his name, demonstrating that he can contribute valuable runs and add genuine depth to a club's playing XI.

He comes highly recommended by several CricX clients, who believe his skill set and professional experience would translate extremely well to UK league cricket. He is particularly keen to secure his first opportunity as an overseas professional in the UK.

For clubs looking for a quality left-arm spinner who can provide wickets, control and useful contributions with the bat, Arif represents an excellent value overseas option.
