Aron Visser is an exciting prospect from Germiston, a small city in the East Rand region of Gauteng, South Africa.

A schoolboy prodigy, after dominating age-group and Varsity cricket, he was rewarded with provincial selection for Easterns in 2018. He has since gone on to play 37 matches across the three formats – 17 in One-Day cricket, where he has become a first-team regular.

Playing in a side that features numerous Franchise players, the batting all-rounder has produced a glimpse of his undoubted potential.

A hard-hitting middle-order batter, who bowls predominantly off-spin, but is a capable leg-spinner, Visser was a shining light for St Benedicts College before starring for the prestigious Tuks University. He was part of their 2018 and 2019 Varsity Cup-winning campaigns and was a key figure during their World Campus Varsity triumph hitting 4 undefeated scores of 35+, striking at over 125, to include a man of the match award in 2019.

The previous season he was part of the Easterns One-Day title campaign, then last summer (2019/20) was influential in Easterns Three-Day and T20 titles.

Visser is a talented batting all-rounder who spent the 2022 season plying his trade for March Town in the Cambridgeshire and Huntingdonshire Cricket League. He was a resounding success, scoring 1,294 runs at 46.21 including 5 centuries, alongside 27 wickets at 32.63 across all cricket for the club.

The South African, though, is seeking a break from the UK in 2023 but may consider a return in 2024.
