Arthur Summers is an exciting top-order batter who combines elegant stroke play with the temperament to build big innings.

A right-handed opening batter, he earned representative honours with Suffolk CCC at just 16 years of age, featuring in the National Counties Cricket Association (NCCA) T20 competition.

Arthur plays his club cricket for Worlington CC in Division One of the Two Counties Cricket League, where he has established himself as one of the league's standout young talents. In 2023, he finished as the league's fifth-highest run scorer, amassing more than 800 runs, including seven half-centuries in just 16 matches. He holds the record of being Worlington CC's youngest-ever centurion at the age of 15.

Since then, Arthur has continued to develop his all-round game. Alongside his batting, his right-arm off-spin has become a valuable asset, claiming 19 league wickets at an average in the low 20s across the 2025 and 2026 campaigns (correct as of July 2026).

Still in the early stages of his career, Arthur's combination of technical batting ability, developing all-round skills and county experience marks him out as one of Suffolk's most promising young cricketers.
