Ashan Fernando is a talented batting all-rounder who has featured in 19 domestic matches for Bloomfield Cricket and Athletic Club and Tamil Union Cricket and Athletic Club between 2020 and 2023.

Fernando made his first-class debut for Tamil Union in February 2020 after a standout junior career. He excelled for both his school, Maris Stella College—where he captained the side—and the Western-North Under-19s provincial team. He was particularly impressive in the Singer U19 Competitions, showcasing his leadership and batting prowess.

A proven leader, Fernando has captained both the Western Province Under-19s and Tamil Union Under-23 teams. Following his time with Tamil Union, he moved to Bloomfield Cricket and Athletic Club for the 2021/22 season, making a strong impact in List A cricket with 399 runs at 30.69, including his maiden domestic century (105). Despite limited opportunities afterward, he played his final first-class match in July 2023.

Highly recommended by former Sri Lankan legend Rangana Herath, Fernando has also enjoyed two successful seasons of UK club cricket with Swinton Moorside in the Greater Manchester Cricket League (2024–25), accumulating 1,390 runs at 35.64 and 51 wickets at 18. His consistent performances have earned him a re-signing for a third UK stint in 2026.
