Ashley Ndiraya is a seasoned Zimbabwe international and former captain of the Lady Chevrons, renowned for her class and consistency across a decade-long international career between 2019 and 2024. A powerful left-handed batter who typically operates at the top of the order, Ndiraya was a key run-scorer for Zimbabwe across both formats, compiling 430 runs in 18 ODIs at an average of 26.87, including a highest score of 82*, alongside 248 runs in 29 T20 Internationals.

A leg-spin bowler, Ndiraya has developed genuine all-round depth to her game over the years, with 21 List A wickets at an average of 20.28 (best figures of 4/22) and 14 wickets in T20 cricket, adding a further dimension to her game beyond her primary role as a top-order batter.

Since stepping back from the senior Zimbabwe set-up, Ndiraya has remained an active and prolific presence in domestic cricket, most recently with Northerns Women, having previously represented the Rhinos. Her leadership experience, calm on-field presence, and ability to impact matches with both bat and ball have made her a pillar of Zimbabwean women's cricket.

In 2024, she impressed during a successful stint with Bishop's Stortford in the Women's Cricket Southern League, showcasing her quality in English conditions. Now eager to return to the UK in 2027, Ndiraya offers a rare blend of international pedigree, all-round capability, and professionalism that would strengthen any side.
