Ashley Ndiraya is a seasoned Zimbabwe international and former captain of the Lady Chevrons, renowned for her class and consistency over more than a decade at the top level. A powerful left-handed batter who typically operates at the top of the order, Ndiraya has long been a key run-scorer for Zimbabwe across both formats, compiling over 400 runs in ODIs at an average nearing 27, alongside contributions in T20 internationals and domestic competitions alike.

Equally effective with the ball, her off-spin has grown into a valuable asset, adding genuine all-round depth to her game in recent years. Her ability to impact matches with both bat and ball, combined with leadership experience and a calm on-field presence, has made her a pillar of Zimbabwean women’s cricket.

In 2024, she impressed during a successful stint with Bishop’s Stortford in the Women’s Cricket Southern League, showcasing her quality in English conditions. Now eager to return to the UK in 2026, Ndiraya offers a rare blend of international pedigree, all-round capability, and professionalism that would strengthen any side.
