Ashley Ndiraya is an established international performer and former skipper of the Zimbabwean Women's side (Lady Chevrons).

A run machine of the highest order, Ndiraya has excelled across both domestic and international cricket for more than a decade.

A left-handed top, or opening batter, Ndiraya has regularly featured among the leading run-scorers in various domestic competitions. With the ball, her off-spin has become more prominent over the years to the extent she's been a genuine all-rounder in recent times.

A powerful left-hander, and economical off-spinner, Ndiraya played for Bishop's Stortford in the Women's Cricket Southern League last year with success, and is now seeking a UK return in 2025.
