Ashwin Hebbar is a proven top-order batter with a track record of success in both Indian domestic cricket and overseas leagues. A mainstay for Andhra since his debut in 2015, he has been a consistent performer across formats, with standout returns in white-ball cricket that earned him a place in the Delhi Capitals squad for the 2022 IPL. In first-class cricket, Ashwin has compiled more than a thousand runs, while in List A cricket he averages over 40 with six centuries, and in T20s he has combined power with consistency to pass 1,500 runs at a strike rate above 130.

His impact abroad has been even more striking. In 2018, he lit up the Northern Premier League with Penrith, amassing 1,373 runs at 72.26, including seven centuries, and adding 34 wickets with the ball. A return to the UK in 2019 saw him continue to impress with Heyside in the Greater Manchester Cricket League, before joining Royal Wootton Bassett in 2025, where he struck a club-record 184 and finished the season with 490 runs at 40.83 alongside useful wickets.

Combining class at the crease with valuable seam-bowling skills, Ashwin brings experience, adaptability, and the proven ability to deliver match-winning performances in varied conditions. Now, the former IPL man is eager to return to UK cricket in 2026 and make another lasting impact.
