Ayush Shukla is an exciting international seam bowler who has been a key figure in the Hong Kong national setup since 2022.

At just 23 years old, he has already racked up over 47 T20Is and 17 List A appearances, and is widely regarded as one of the brightest pace prospects in Associate cricket.

International Pedigree

Key Asia Cup performer: Delivered a composed 4-0-1-29 spell against India and helped secure a memorable win over Afghanistan.

Standout T20I moment: A brilliant 4-wicket haul against Pakistan, showcasing his ability to trouble world-class opposition.

T20I record holder: Holds the remarkable feat of bowling four consecutive maiden overs in a T20I – a rare and elite accomplishment.

Bowling Skillset

Right-arm fast-medium with natural swing, especially with the new ball

Proven ability to dismiss top-order batters and operate effectively during pressure moments

Versatile enough to bowl across all phases – new ball, middle overs, and death

Batting & Development Focus

A capable lower-order batter with clean hitting ability

Keen to further develop his batting while contributing as a dependable bowling all-rounder in club cricket

Brings a professional mindset and willingness to learn and adapt

Availability & Off-Field Value

Available for the full 2026 UK season

Has accommodation in London, but is open to playing in any region of the UK

Passionate about coaching and happy to share his international experience with teammates and junior cricketers

Ayush Shukla represents a rare package – a young, international new-ball bowler with big-match experience and plenty of upside. Energetic, professional, and coachable, he would be an asset to any UK club seeking a high-impact overseas player with leadership potential and proven class.
