Ben Duffell, a promising left-arm spin bowling all-rounder from Sussex, United Kingdom.

Representing his home club, Littlehampton, Clapham & Patching Cricket Club, Ben has established himself as a regular member of the First XI squad over the past three seasons, competing in the Fourth Division of the Sussex Cricket League.

A skilful and dependable left-arm spinner, Ben has been a consistent wicket-taking threat, claiming more than 50 First XI wickets across the past three seasons at an impressive average of 25.91.

An unselfish team player, Ben prides himself on always putting the side first and is constantly striving to improve every aspect of his game. Committed to continuous development, he is always looking for the small one-percent improvements that will enable him to contribute more effectively with both bat and ball.

Now seeking his first overseas opportunity, Ben is eager to experience cricket abroad, further develop his game, and fully immerse himself in his chosen club's culture both on and off the field.

A hardworking all-round cricketer with a genuine left-arm spin point of difference, Ben would be an excellent addition to any club looking to strengthen its bowling attack for the 2026/27 season.
