Ben Winder is a talented bowling all-rounder from Fylde, England.

An 18 year-old who has recently broke into the Fylde Cricket Club 1st XI, the right-arm seamer is a hard working youngster is currently playing in the Northern Pyramid Cricket League - Palace Shield Division.

Making his 1st XI debut back in 2024, Ben was more of a fringe player for the side in 2025. Taking 6 wickets last season with his seam, Winder has established himself in the 1st XI this season with 13 wickets by the end of June, at an average of just 22.

With the bat in hand, Ben is a right-hander who bats in the middle/lower order. With a high-score of 37 not out this season for Fylde, the youngster continues to work on his batting and his ability to contribute across all facets of the game.

Now seeking to develop his game and experience a Winter away from home, Ben is looking for opportunities in the Southern Hemisphere for the upcoming 2026/27 AUS/NZ season. With friends heading out to Melbourne, Winder would prefer to be in and around Victoria but is open to all locations & clubs that will provide the chance for him to better his cricket.
