Ben Mellor is a dedicated and hardworking medium-fast bowler who brings both passion and energy to any team.

Having represented his county Staffordshire at junior level for several years, he also played a key role in winning a T20 cup competition against multiple counties across the country.

A highly resilient cricketer, Ben is known for his ability to bowl long spells with consistency, maintain high energy in the field, and continually strive to improve his game. He recorded an impressive bowling average of 18.83 in the strong ECB North Staffordshire Premier League, alongside a top score of 56* with the bat. Ben has now established himself as a starter in the Audley CC first team, captained by ex Derbyshire CCC player Rob Hemmings and is looking to kick on and put some strong performance in at ECB Premier League level.

Off the field, Ben is an energetic and sociable individual who contributes positively to team culture. He is committed not only to winning matches but also to being a strong clubman, always willing to support the team in any way he can.
