Bevan Coveley (22) is an exciting dual Passport holding batter who recently completed 3-years at the prestigious Wynberg Boys High School, the former home to the great Jacques Kallis.

Originally from Zimbabwe, the youngster moved to Cape Town and went on to represent Wynberg in 70 first-team matches. Alongside his studies in South Africa, he returned to Zimbabwe to represent his Country at the age-group level.

Over the past two seasons, Coveley scored 217 runs at 36.2 (2018) and 265 runs at 26.5 (2019). During this period, he was the School's second-leading run-scorer and culminated with being awarded colours for cricket.

Since school, the British Passport holder has played in the Western Province Cricket Association for Cape Town Cricket Club where he has enjoyed plenty of success. Coveley has played for Armitage Bridge Cricket Club the last 3 seasons in the Huddersfield Cricket League, and has amassed nearly 1400 runs at 20, with a high score of 110.

The British Passport Holder is now keen on a new challenge for 2024. No doubt a handy cricketer who can play as a Cat 1 player as of next season.
