Billy Ramsden, a talented young bowling all-rounder from The Bay of Plenty, New Zealand.

Predominantly a right-arm opening bowler, the 20-year-old provides a genuine wicket-taking threat with the new ball and complements his bowling with an aggressive approach as a hard-hitting middle-order batter. Importantly for prospective UK clubs, Billy also holds a British passport, making him an extremely attractive option for the 2027 season.

At home, Billy represents Greerton Cricket Club in the strong Bay of Plenty Premier Competition. He enjoyed a breakthrough campaign during the 2024/25 season, making 21 First XI appearances and claiming 25 wickets at an average of 22, while also contributing more than 200 runs at an average of 20.

Billy continued his progression during the 2025/26 campaign, developing into an increasingly influential all-round performer. With the bat, he amassed 416 runs at an average of 26, while his effectiveness with the ball saw him claim an impressive 31 wickets at an average of 21.

The Kiwi has since taken his game to the United Kingdom, representing Old Glossop Cricket Club, where he has further underlined his all-round credentials. Billy has enjoyed an excellent campaign, taking 35 wickets at an average of just 17, while also scoring over 600 runs at an average of 31.

His performances in the UK demonstrate his ability to adapt successfully to English conditions and provide genuine value across both disciplines. Capable of taking the new ball and picking up important wickets, while also adding considerable firepower and depth to a batting line-up, Billy offers clubs an exciting all-round package.

Having thoroughly enjoyed his experience in English club cricket, Billy is now eager to return to UK shores for the 2027 season and continue building on his impressive performances.
