Bradley Goldsack is an impressive batter who can keep from Kent, England.

The left handers is a fluent top order batter who can score freely all around the ground, and is an excellent gloveman. He plays his club cricket in the strong Kent Premier League for 2023 Champions Lordswood Cricket Club.

As a former member of the Kent Cricket Academy, he featured for the Kent 2nd XI and has represented Canterbury Christchurch University in BUCs. The batter has well over 1000 runs at Premier level, and last year chalked up nearly 500 runs at 27 in the strong Kent Premier League which is widely regarded as one of the strongest comps around.

In addition to this, Bradley holds a degree in Sports Coaching Science, has multiple coaching qualifications and has work experience across varied abilities, age groups and genders. Currently working across county, club and school set ups.

He is now keen to head overseas and challenge himself, he is travelling with partner so would need suitable accommodation.
